FEAR SLAYING OF HINDENBURG

Sofia, Capital of Bulgaria, in Flames

PANIC REIGNS AS MYSTERY FIRE RAGES

Communists Are Believed To Have Started Conflagration In Night Hours

SUBMIT TO SERBIANS

Bulgarian Government Accedes to Demands and Frames Note of Apology

VIENNA, April 29.—Sofia was in flames in many places during the night, fires breaking out mysteriously, causing a panic among the inhabitants, according to Sofia dispatches. Handbills appeared charging the military with arson, for the purpose of driving Communists from hiding.

The official version is that Communists set the fires, then circulated the handbills in order to create discontent with the Zankoff regime.

Accept Serb Demands

Bulgaria has acceded to Serbia's demands and is framing a note containing new and explicit apologies. The United Press correspondent at Belgrade learned that M. Walkareli, the Bulgarian ambassador, informed the Serbian government that the new note would explain and apologize for recent accusations against Serbia.

The latter nation is reported appeased.

A fresh sign of agitation in the Balkans was observed today when Rumania reacted to the election of Hindenburg by demanding further increases in the size of her army "in readiness for any emergency," according to Bucharest dispatches.

See Wider Cleavage

Rumania expects a wider and more definite cleavage between reaction and radicalism to result from the German elections.

The Serbs were aroused to threaten a break in diplomatic relations with Bulgaria after several ministers of the Kalkoff government had been quoted as saying that the recent abortive revolution and subsequent outrages had been planned across the border in Serbia.

Sues Anti-Saloon Head for $200,000

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—E. Clemens Horst, had a suit on file in superior court here today against Dr. A. H. Briggs, head of the California Anti-Saloon league, and the league for $200,000 damages. Horst's suit claimed damage to his reputation by reason of an article in the California Liberator, league journal, attacking Horst's position against the "shorter Bible" and its "raisin cake" translation for wine.

Firemen Overcome As Factory Burns

BROOKLYN, N. Y., April 29.—Thirteen firemen were overcome by smoke and scores of persons living in nearby tenement houses were driven to the street lightly clad early today when fire swept the factory of the Bernstein Novelty company here.

ROOSEVELTS LEAVE FRANCE

MARSEILLES, April 29.—Theodore Roosevelt and his brother, Kermit, have sailed for Bombay aboard the steamer Razmak, on their hunting expedition to central Asia.

HAWAII PREPARES WELCOME TO CONQUERING ENEMY IN MANEUVERS BY U. S. NAVY

HONOLULU, April 29.—The tropical isle of Oahu today rushed plans to welcome its conquerors.

Never in the history of military has a victorious foreign foe been awaited with such friendly feeling, for the "enemy" is the "blue" navy of the United States, 45,000 officers and men, while the defeated people are folk from home and natives to whom Uncle Sam is a cherished protector.

Close observers see in the present maneuvers an easy conquest of Hawaii by a foreign foe, as well as a severe menace to Alaska, the Pacific coast and the Panama canal.

It is pointed out that the attacking "blues" easily established a base at Maui, Lanai, where they began operations, although they were sighted by a "black" patrol.

Slays Father, Then Plays Game of Pool

CHISHOLM, Minn., April 29.—A formal charge of murder in the first degree will be made today against Mello Gilhard, 20, who confessed to shooting his father to death because of a reprimand. After the shooting, which occurred late yesterday, the boy calmly walked to a poolroom and was engaged in playing with some friends when police arrested him.

Maintaining the same calm attitude, Gilhard confessed to the murder. Gilhard said he smuggled the revolver into the basement of his home, found his father there, took aim and fired the fatal shot. He said he removed $20 from his father's pockets and made an effort to cover up the murder by placing the gun across his father's chest in the hope police would think it a case of suicide.

3 SENTENCED TO HANG FOR MURDER

LOS ANGELES, April 29.—Three youthful slayers were ordered hanged by Judge Arthur W. Keetch today for the murder of Glen Bond, policeman. The triple execution was set for July 10, at sunrise.

The condemned men are Ed Montijo, Tom Bailey and Lewis Perry. They were convicted of killing Policeman Bond during an attempted bank robbery here on February 20, 1924.

Perry and Bailey will be hanged at San Quentin, the judge decided. Montijo, the "lookout," who fled when the first shot was fired and had no part in the actual shooting, will be hanged at Folsom prison.

There is not enough scaffolding at San Quentin to hang three men simultaneously, it was said, the warden refusing to construct a larger gibbet.

Dirigible Flight Again Deferred

LAKEHURST, N. J., April 29.—Plans for the dirigible Los Angeles' trip to Porto Rico were again tentatively postponed today because of adverse weather conditions and the fact that the airship's fabric was wet as a result of yesterday's rain.

The Los Angeles will carry 200 pounds of mail to Porto Rico. Thirty-seven officers and men will be aboard when the airship sails. The itinerary covers about 3000 miles. The dirigible will head far out to sea before turning south to take advantage of ocean air currents. With favorable flying conditions, it is expected to be moored to the mast ship Patoka, in Mayaguez Harbor, P. R., 36 hours after leaving Lakehurst.

Seek Rancher On Kidnaping Charge

BAKERSFIELD, April 29.—A state-wide search was ordered by authorities today for R. I. Branch, wealthy Rosedale rancher, accused of kidnaping two of his neighbors' children.

Branch disappeared a week ago, simultaneous with the disappearance of Mildred Bassett, 13, and Louis Dwight, 16.

Juvenile authorities issued a formal complaint charging him with kidnaping the children.

Beach U. S. Ship After Collision

LONDON, April 29.—The United States Shipping board steam freighter Innoko was beached late Tuesday to prevent her sinking following a collision with the German-owned motorship Isis, near Antwerp, according to Lloyd's.

Innok was bound from New York to Antwerp. The Isis, damaged in the stern, was taking in water when last reported.

Release Pair In Branding Death

OROVILLE, Calif., April 29.—Mrs. Anna Rhodes, "Roaring Lion of Judah," and her husband, Edward Rhodes, were free today of charges of insanity growing out of the branding and death of Herman Scholow, the woman's brother, in a religious rite. District Attorney William E. Rothe declared he would take no further action in the case.

2 Die When Oil Still Explodes

CANTON, O., April 29.—Two men were killed and one seriously injured when an explosion destroyed the oil distilling plant of the K. and S. Oil company today.

Balk Plot to Assassinate Chamberlain

LONDON, April 29.—The Central News learned today that British officials have discovered and frustrated a Communist plot to assassinate Austen Chamberlain, the foreign minister.

The Central News declares a friendly legation tipped the government regarding a plot to kill Chamberlain.

The officials completely investigated and established the fact that the report was accurate, whereupon Scotland Yard was notified "and the necessary steps taken to insure Chamberlain's protection."

The Central News says the origin of the plot is a "European capital well known as the center of recent bomb murders."

Permanent Site For County Exhibition Is Suggested Along Santa Ana River

IS URGED AS CENTRAL

Mayor Tubbs Is of Opinion Satisfactory Arrangements Can Be Effected

POSSIBLE SOLUTION OF A

A permanent site for the Orange county fair was seen today in the action of the city council of Santa Ana yesterday in filing suits to condemn 300 acres of land along the east side of the Santa Ana river for the purpose of acquiring water-bearing lands for development of water for domestic consumption.

It was suggested that possibly a portion of the property could be utilized as a site for the fair, and also as county recreational grounds.

It was pointed out that the location is very central, so far as the county is concerned, and that it is within a short distance of La Veta avenue and Flower street. West Orange, recently determined as the center of population in Orange county.

The 300 acres the city proposes to condemn is approximately half a mile in width and a mile and a half long, extending north from the Chapman street bridge across the river.

Directors Discuss Site

Utilization of the site for fair purposes and for a big recreational park was discussed by the executive board of the Orange County Fair association at a meeting held yesterday by A. M. Stanley, secretary-manager of the Orange County Farm bureau.

"The location is ideal for fair grounds," Stanley said. "The character of the soil also is ideal for fair purposes. There has been a great demand for location of a permanent site for the fair and for recreational grounds at some point in the vicinity of the site chosen by the city for its water development program."

In discussions yesterday it was pointed out by members of the executive committee that the city would not need all of the ground and that the city's only purpose was to secure lands that could be depended on for water development."

Stanley said that while acquisition of the land is a project of the city, it was possible agreements could be made between the city and the county by which the county could develop and assume costs incidental to the establishment and improvement of fair grounds and a recreational park.

Feasible, Tubbs Thinks

J. W. Tubbs, mayor, said today that it was possible arrangements could be worked out for the county to take over part of the ground and use it for fair and park purposes. He knew of no objection that could be made to such an arrangement except possibility of contamination of the water supply.

The big program of the city, involving as it does the expenditure of $1,200,000, has been favorably commented on by prominent citizens since announcement of the project in The Register yesterday.

Expressions heard on the street would indicate that there would be little opposition to the floating of a bond issue to provide the funds.

Favor Water Development

Belief was expressed that citizens generally realize that if the city is to continue to expand a dependable source of water supply must be acquired, and that a system must be built up that will meet water needs for many years to come.

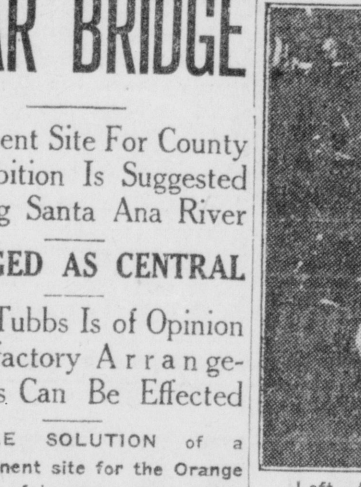

J. B. Lippincott, water engineer, of Los Angeles, who prepared the report upon which the city council is basing its development program, estimates the outlined plan will provide ample water facilities for the next 20 years.

Touching upon the present plant, the engineer in his report to the council says:

"Your water system was practically stretched to its ultimate capacity during the past summer and as it will require over a year's time for the necessary legal procedure and construction of new works, immediate action should be taken by your board in presenting the facts relative to your water system to the citizens of your city."

Father Gives Life to Save Child From Death Under Hoofs of Mules

Left—Albert Adams, 26, rancher, who yesterday gave up his life to save his 4-year-old daughter from death in runaway. Right—Mildred Marie Adams, the little girl, who owes her life to her father's heroism. Unconscious of danger, she was making mud pies when the accident occurred.

In an heroic and successful attempt to save the life of his baby girl, playing directly in the path of two infuriated mules which were running away, an Orange county father laid down his life yesterday.

Albert Adams, 26, rancher of the Irvine ranch, is dead, and Mildred Marie Adams, 4, is at Orange County hospital, suffering from a fractured clavicle and from shock, as a result of the accident, which occurred in a beet field near the Adams camp, late yesterday.

The little girl's condition is serious, but it was said she will recover.

Riding With Father

According to a story told by Y. W. Chun, a Japanese laborer on the ranch, the little girl had been riding with her father on a 1500-pound roller, which two mules were dragging over the field. She left her father and went to play near an irrigation ditch in the field, and the father kept on with his work.

Suddenly the mules became frightened and ran away. They were headed directly toward the child, who, unmindful of approaching danger, was busy making mud pies on the bank of the stream. The father sensed the danger, jumped from his seat, and ran down the tongue of the roller.

When he reached the end of the tongue, the mules were within a few feet of the child, so he dived at their heads, falling underneath them. He was killed instantly.

Funeral At San Diego

Funeral services for the father will be held in San Diego, probably Saturday. The body will be sent from Santa Ana tomorrow afternoon.

Adams had been a resident of Orange county for nine months, coming here from San Diego.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Zelma Adams, who lived on the ranch, and by his mother, Mrs. Maude Latson of San Diego.

More Police Are Sent To Guard Villa

Claim Increased Force Is Established to Keep Off Crowds of Enthusiasts

NEW POLICY OUTLINED

Chancellor Tells Hope of Peaceful Understanding Among European Nations

BERLIN, April 29.—Police guards were increased today around President-Elect Hindenburg's villa at Hanover, giving rise to rumors of an attempt to assassinate the field marshal.

Emphatic denial of knowledge of any plot was made at police headquarters, where it was said the additional guards were to assist in keeping off enthusiastic demonstrators.

President-Elect Hindenburg favors a safety pact among European nations, continued fulfillment of the Dawes plan and world-wide peace.

His views were made known today by Chancellor Luther, with whom the field marshal conferred Tuesday.

Spokesman for War Lord

Luther, addressing a big industrial convention, was recognized to be acting as Hindenburg's mouthpiece and to be expressing the policies of the president-elect.

The chancellor expressed hope for a peaceful understanding throughout Europe. Germany, he declared, is entitled to protection against attacks. She will not and she cannot conduct a war.

Hope that a safety pact with France and others of the allies would be consummated speedily, and that the Ruhr and Cologne areas will be evacuated soon, was expressed by the chancellor.

"Let us banish the uncertainty and lack of clarity in the European situation," Luther pleaded.

Without qualification, he announced continuance of Germany's previous foreign policy.

Behind the words of the speaker, all Germany recognized the purpose to convey Hindenburg's policies to the world.

Wants Allies' Evidence

Luther, in so many words, demanded that the allies produce the evidence on which they were declining to evacuate German territory.

His speech before the "Industrie und Handelsrat," was accepted as evidence that Hindenburg will exert his influence to force the allies' hand on the matter of non-evacuation.

"An injustice done Germany by the allies still exists," Luther told the industrialists and business men who formed his audience. "We have waited vainly for more than three and one-half months for substantial justification of the allies' failure to evacuate Cologne and other areas. They promised to produce this justification, but have failed to do so."

He is compelled to expect that the allies will not hesitate longer, but will terminate this state of affairs."

Luther said a solution to the problem raised by non-evacuation was essential to all Europe. Non-evacuation stood in the way of a security pact, he maintained.

Communists Call Strike

Pursuing their policy of endeavoring to stir up the workers against Hindenburg, the German Communists today issued a proclamation, calling upon all to quit work in factories and shops Friday-May Day.

The proclamation reiterated yesterday's demands, but apparently the Communists are attempting to profit by a well established continental custom. They call upon workers to take Friday off "as a protest against the 'Hindenburg system,'" knowing well that the first of May is a day when few of the working class refrain from taking a holiday.

Labour probably will not heed the Communists' call for a general strike on inauguration day, but will undoubtedly not work May Day.

Paris to Proceed On Security Pact

PARIS, April 29.—France's dissatisfaction at the election of Field Marshal Hindenburg to the German presidency is not to interfere with negotiations regarding a security pact, it was indicated in semi-official circles today. The foreign office said that an exchange of views with the Luther government regarding a security agreement will be continued, despite Hindenburg's election.

According to police, the two women and three men were holding a "party" in a local restaurant when they were arrested. The men were not held by the police after they were taken to the station.

The women will be given a hearing before City Recorder J. F. Tabbutt, this afternoon.

Originally valued at $180,000, it is said to have brought disaster to everyone who has owned it.

Alexander has installed first class equipment in his new plant here and will be in a position to handle all kinds of high class engraving, including process color plates.

Alexander will handle the Orange County Engraving company himself and will be independent of any other concern. His plant is located at 114 North Broadway.

AUDITORIUM IS TO BE GUARDED AGAINST FIRES

Acting on recommendations submitted by John Luxembourg, chief of the Santa Ana fire department, the local school trustees will take immediate steps to put the high school auditorium in a safe condition, and to equip the building with necessary fire-fighting equipment, it was announced today.

These recommendations were formulated following a personal inspection of the premises by Fire Chief Luxembourg, City Supt. J. A. Cranston, Secretary F. L. Andrews, of the board of education, and Principal D. K. Hammond, of the high school.

The recommendations include installation of an emergency lighting system, fed from independent batteries, and of sufficient strength to light up the auditorium in event of emergency. It was also urged that an exit be provided on the west side of the stage section of the building, which in addition to facilitating escape from fire, would give easy access to fire fighters.

The matter of installing and connecting the stage sprinkling system is now under advisement by the board of underwriters, and the school board will be largely governed by the underwriters' decision, it was intimated.

London Office Boys Wax Rich On Oil Shares

LONDON, April 29.—Once in that mythical blue moon, office boys, chambermaids and hotel porters invade the stock market and slaughter the skilled professional operators.

Much to its astonishment, the great London stock exchange finds itself with a situation of that sort.

For many months, the shares of British Controlled Oilfields have been despised and rejected of men, reaching as low as 90 cents a share last year.

Now, 90 cents put the shares within the reach of people in all walks of life. The aforesaid people began to buy, since it was so cheap. Professional operators on the "bear" side openly jeered at this hunger for British Controlled Oilfields.

And now all the sophisticated ones are dumbfounded to discover that British Controlled Oilfields is no misnomer and that it actually does control in the Buchivacoa fields—a mere swamp that few prospectors would look at twice—an oilfield rapidly approaching 18,000 barrels a day.

Operators who had sold to the gullible boys shares which they didn't actually have in their possession to sell, had to scurry around and snap some up quick. They are still hunting for those shares, and the price thereof has gone up from 90 cents to around $5.00 a share.

Loud Speaker Is Installed In Notre Dame

PARIS, April 29.—In the purlieus of the soothing solemnity of Notre Dame has come that ultra-modern contrivance, the loud speaker. The ancient naves, haunted by traditions beside the Seine echo the services within the celebrated cathedral so that the message may be carried further than hitherto has been possible.

The Dominican Father Sanson boldly set a precedent in the ecclesiastical history of France when he adopted the loud speaker for the Lenten services. The innovation has been pronounced a great success and thousands otherwise unable to attend the services may now hear everything.

Father Sanson only recently took over the pulpit of Notre Dame, but his brilliant sermons quickly attracted widespread attention and enormous crowds have been flocking to the old Gothic Cathedral to hear him.

Parisians and visitors, persons from all walks of life, have tried to find places, but the accommodations are so limited that crowds have been disappointed. So Father Sanson has adopted the loud speaker and given it the dignity that appertains to Notre Dame.

"The Pull House," a comedy, was recently selected as the next play for the Legion's theatrical association, and rehearsals will begin immediately. There are 14 persons in the play, seven men and seven women.

On Friday night, the parts will be read and assigned by Griff Barnett, director.

Complete Plans For Post Dance Thursday Night

Plans were being completed today for the carnival dance and frolic to be held at the American Legion home tomorrow night, when the local post will entertain ex-service men and their wives and sweethearts, together with members of the Legion's auxiliary.

The dance will be an informal affair, and fancy costumes will be worn by all who attend. No masks will be worn, however, according to an announcement made today by Wilbur Getty, post commander.

Any sort of unusual garb will secure admittance to the dance, but street clothes will be barred.

Chapman's orchestra will furnish the music and refreshments will be served.

POSTPONE TRIALS IN ACCIDENT CASE

Trials of damage suits involving claims totaling $16,113, which had been scheduled today before a jury in Superior Judge Z. B. West's court, were reset for November 24 and 25, it was announced. The cases are those of Charles J. Gerber and his wife, Jessie, of Los Angeles, against E. P. Crane, of Brawley.

The new extended delay followed a series of earlier delays caused by "internal" disagreement between the Gerbers and their counsel. The result was a change of attorneys last week, and a request by the new counsel for more time.

Gerber filed a suit for $10,735 damages for injuries he claims to have incurred in a wreck near Irvine on December 16, 1923. In another action, filed jointly by Gerber and his wife, the former asked $5000 damages for loss of the wife's companionship while she was disabled through injury. Mrs. Gerber asked $10,123 for her injuries, and both asked $250 for medical expenses.

Attorney Charles R. McCarthy of Los Angeles filed the suits for the Gerbers, having been brought into the case through collection attorney, Charles Hutchinson, who was first engaged by the Gerbers. When Gerber appeared before Judge West last week asking permission to substitute E. J. Miller as his attorney in place of McCarthy, affidavits were presented by McCarthy and Hutchinson, resisting the substitution. They declared that they were interested in the case on a contingent fee basis. They also declared that they had secured an offer from Crane, agreeing to settle the cases for $4125, but that Gerber had refused to accept the settlement, which McCarthy believed a fair one.

After a hearing on the matter, Judge West allowed the substitution of Miller for McCarthy. Attorney Joe Crider Jr., of Los Angeles, represents Crane.

Police News

A phonograph and a number of records, jointly valued at $175, were stolen from the El Toro school house last night, according to a report received at the sheriff's office. Entrance was gained through the rear door, which was "jimmied."

Dude Ranchers to Again Invade West
CHRYENNE, Wyo., April 29.—Wyoming will have the largest influx of "dudes" this coming summer in the history of "dude ranching," according to ranchers of the Jackson Hole country, who cater especially to this type of eastern tourists.

Approximately 600 "dudes" were furnished western thrills at the ranches in the vicinity of Jackson Hole last season and this number is expected to be doubled this year. The "dude" ranches are well equipped to entertain the tourists, supplying them with all the luxuries, in the midst of a wild western atmosphere.

Cabins are elaborately furnished. The visitors are taken to listen to radio concerts in recreation halls. If the spirit of adventure moves them they make sojourns into the wilds with guides and packhorses. All safe and secure they may snug down into their ultra-comfortable camp beds and enjoy delicious thrills listening to a prowling cougar without the danger of the huge cat gnawing their legs off.

FIGHT STORY
DRAWS REPLY
BY SMEDLEY

"This is all news to me," remarked Ralph C. Smedley, general secretary of the Santa Ana Y. M. C. A., commenting on a fight alleged to have taken place Monday night in the friendly surroundings of the Y. M. C. A. building, an account of which was published in a Los Angeles morning paper.

According to the news story printed in the Los Angeles paper, one F. H. Keller is accused of having caused a disturbance in the dormitory. Meanwhile, the newspaper account says, Keller is nursing an injury to his head. The injury is asserted to have been caused when the other principal in the fight, L. C. Hisey, struck his opponent with a revolver.

Voicing his disapproval of what he termed a super-heated imagination, Secretary Smedley took exception to a statement that the affair caused a general turmoil in the building, and that Keller was thrown down a flight of stairs. He also protested against another version of the affair, published in the Los Angeles morning paper, to the effect that it was necessary for officials of the institution to put a stop to the encounter.

As a result of an investigation made today by Secretary Smedley, the only sign that there had been a dispute was a request by L. C. Hisey, who lives at the institution, that Keller be not allowed to enter Hisey's room, as Keller had given him trouble about some employment money, he asserted.

Neither is it true that Keller was thrown down the entire flight of stairs, as reported in the news story, the secretary said, on the contrary, he came down from the dormitory and walked out in an orderly manner. There was nothing to indicate that there had even been a dispute until Hisey asked that the visitor be not allowed in his room.

S. A. ELKS WILL HELP BOYS TO GET POSITIONS

Desiring to assist deserving boys who need employment, Santa Ana lodge of Elks has decided to act as a clearing house for employers and those seeking employment.

The Big Brother committee, Fred Forgy, chairman, will be in charge of the work, assisted by E. R. Majors, secretary. A list of boys desiring work and a list of available jobs will be kept on file at the clubhouse.

The service which the lodge will inaugurate is in line with its policy of being a "big brother" to boys. Any lad who is unable to secure employment is at liberty to file his name with the secretary. The committee expects to keep in touch with the juvenile authorities, judges and officials of the reform schools, and intends to assist boys recommended by these agencies.

Two candidates were initiated, six members came in by demit and a number of applications for membership were rejected on last night's meeting.

The new officers of the lodge, who presided for the first time last night, were complimented highly by Charles Burgess, past exalted ruler of Detroit lodge, who gave a short talk at the meeting.

A demonstration of first aid work was given by the emergency squad of the telephone company. A "feed" was enjoyed at the conclusion of the meeting.

Movie Chatterbox

The movie kiss is losing its kick and directors are turning to more effective devices to register romance in the films.

Even the famous fadeout at the last foot of film, when hero and heroine translate the happy ending in terms of osculation, is passing into limbo, according to Robert Vignola, veteran director.

"Audiences are no longer satisfied to accept a kissing scene on the screen as evidence that love has found its own," declared the director.

"The kiss is a time-worn device of the films that has worked itself to death, and discriminating picture fans are demanding variations and substitutes.

"In the past it has been relied upon as a handy expedient to untangle a love plot and save film footage. The film cutter, hard-pressed for footage to tell the story of the play, has usually found relief in the love scenes. If nothing else was preserved of the scene, the kiss at the climax was counted on as sufficient to register the motif of the plot.

Audience Displeased. "The result has been that kissing scenes, flung on the screen abruptly, and without a proper development of the love interest, have surfeited, rather than pleased, the audiences."

Happy endings, according to Vignola, are no longer necessary to make a convincing picture. "A death scene is just as effective for an ending if properly portrayed, and that holds for films of romance as well as spoken tragedy," he said.

"Movie fans are demanding more real heart interest than ever, but a mere kiss no longer thrills them. A romance properly unfolded on the screen does not require the conventional and climactic kissing scenes."

"In fact, the picture is more convincing when the kissing scenes are omitted, and more is left to the imagination of the audience."

The temperamental screen actress is blamed for the scarcity of women directors motion pictures. While many successful pictures have been produced with women handling the megaphone, the majority of feminine stars prefer to work under direction of men only, according to B. P. Schulberg, prominent producer.

Says Women Successful. "Women have been exceptionally successful in every other line of the industry," Schulberg declared, "but the women stars for some unexplainable reason want a man to do their directing. When you ask them why, they merely shrug their shoulders."

"I believe it is merely a psychological condition—they feel man is a natural leader and find custom are disposed to look up to him. But they regard women differently. I sometimes think that a little feminine jealousy enters into the situation, but I have never really been able to fathom it."

She is an excellent student, according to her instructors.

Betty Bronson, wiseful star of "Peter Pan," has been selected from a field of 250 applications for the part of Madonna in the lavish film version of "Ben Hur."

Orange Hosts Greet Many Guests at Dancing Party

Countless Santa Ana guests were among the 250 fortunate folk who last night experienced the delightful hospitality extended by a group of Orange hosts presenting a smart dancing party at the Orange Woman's club. Mr. and Mrs. Justus Craemer, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Arch Burkett, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Stanley and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kogler were the members of the smart set of the neighboring city who chose to join in presenting the pleasant affair.

Spring offered the motif for the decorations and in the spacious lobby where the receiving line formed, a true flower garden effect prevailed with Cecil Bruner roses and brilliantly-colored sweet peas predominating. In harmony with the vari-colored effect, the half dozen hostesses were gownned in charming dancing frocks in pastel tints of rose, green, yellow, orchid and other lovely tones.

Yellow was the dominant color in the ball-room and the stage was a lovely golden bower with foliage, golden blow and other "flowers of the sun." The Huntington Beach orchestra gave the musical number dance to. Features introduced were many pursuit dances and one unusually beautiful Hawaiian number when the guests were asked to form for a grand march. As they passed the host group all were decked with pastel-tinted Hawaiian leis, the hosts presenting the festive garlands to the ladies and the hostesses decking the gentlemen. After were greeted and adorned, partner joined in dancing to the dreamy native music. The leis were worn the remainder of the evening, giving an added note of color to the affair.

Iced punch flowed freely throughout the dance. The punch tables were charming in their floral arrangement and two dainty little maids, the Misses Evelyn and Rosalie Smith, in pink and white, wearing demure caps and aprons of pink, presided at the "flowing bowl." In addition to the long list of Orange guests were members of the social set of this city, Balboa, Costa Mesa, and Los Angeles.

Philomela Chorus At Ebell Clubhouse

With a club of thirty trained voices, the Philomela chorus from the University of Redlands will present what promises to be one of the most finished and varied concerts of the season, at the Ebell club house, Thursday, April 30, at eight o'clock.

The chorus, composed of women of the university, is under the direction of Charles Howard Marsh, well known composer and artist. The perfection and polish attained in the rendition of the songs of the program is of highest quality, critics claim.

The program consists of chorus numbers, piano and vocal solos, together with clever and unusual novelties, and is well worth the very nominal admission charge. Tickets may be bought at the Santa Ana book store, or at the Ebell box office.

Prominent Woman To Be Complimented

Recognition of her value to the church organization in all its varying departments is being offered by Mrs. W. H. Harrison, president of the Baptist Woman's society, by the congregation as a whole, when she will be honored guest at a tea to be given Friday afternoon from 2 to 4:30 o'clock at the parsonage home of the Rev. and Mrs. Otto Russell, 1013 Spurgeon street.

Mrs. Harrison's legion of friends are asked to drop in for word of greeting and to enjoy the May-day tea. A friendly informality will prevail and ample opportunity will be given all to greet the honored guest who by her charm of personality and remarkable executive ability, has left her stamp on every department of the church and a firm and loving friend. Mrs. Harrison has had the presidency of the Woman's society for the past two years.

College Friends Meet To Share Birthday Of Popular Maid

Planned by Miss Louise Bryant and Miss Dorothy Dresser was a delightful little party of Monday night when Miss Vena Belle Bryant was the surprised honoree, the occasion being her birthday.

The two young hostesses asked a congenial little group of girls whose associations through high school and Junior college had been unusually close and the reunion was thus particularly pleasant. An April rainbow effect was given the Bryant home at 729 Oak street where the party was held, by the use of vari-colored garden flowers in lavish profusion. The decorative effect extended to the supper hour when the card tables which had been in use for 500, were spread with pretty luncheon cloths in different pastel tints. Each table was then centered with a basket of vivid posies while a bow of tulle to harmonize in color with colored linens, further adorned each basket.

The effect was colorful and lovely and added to the enjoyment of the dainty menu served in two courses by Miss Dresser and Miss Bryant, assisted by the latter's mother, Mrs. E. Lee Bryant who aided in dispensing the friendly hospitality of the home.

In the card contest, prize awards were made Miss Lois Sweet scoring high, and Miss Jean Ross, low. In the after-supper interval, cards gave way to dancing. One of the most enjoyable intervals came when the honoree, Miss Vena Belle Bryant, was showered with dainty birthday gifts by her friends.

Gathered for the happy evening were the hostesses and honor guest, Miss Louise Bryant, Miss Dorothy Dresser, and Miss Vena Belle Bryant, and the Misses Althea Jones, Melvina Frys, Jean Ross, Frances Battey, Margaret Hutchings, Lois Sweet, Phyllis Trickey, Leona Rabe and Marian Preston.

Delphian Circle

The recent meeting of the Delphian chapter at Ebell club was rendered especially interesting because of the annual election of officers in which Mrs. F. E. Coulter was named as president to be assisted by Mrs. Alice Hill Hatch, vice president and Mrs. T. R. Trawick, secretary.

At the same session, delegates were selected to represent the local chapter at the general assembly scheduled for tomorrow at Los Angeles. Miss Lula Minter and Mrs. Fred C. Zaiser were named with Miss Rosa Clausen and Mrs. L. M. Smith as alternates. In addition to the delegates, the chapter will send a large representation of members quite as much local interest attaches to the special meeting which the chapter will close an interesting year on May 22 when a luncheon will be held at the Ebell clubhouse with one of the Travel sections to serve.

Following discussion of these and many other business matters, the afternoon program was given, opening with a description of Thomas Hardy's life and the many things which influenced his character and his work, given interestingly by Mrs. S. H. Finley. Mrs. T. B. Kelly followed with a general review of his work in which many of his books were touched upon.

The remainder of the afternoon was given over to Mrs. W. D. Baker who recounted experiences on a recent trip to Mexico and displayed a unique collection of valuable rugs, baskets and pottery.

S. A. Woman's Club

Mrs. S. W. Wedgewood of 829 Cypress street, will be hostess to the Santa Ana Woman's club Tuesday afternoon, May 5 when the program will be on "Our Charities." The program committee, Mrs. S. E. Littrell, Mrs. Scott Smith and Mrs. G. B. Lamme had arranged for Mrs. Carrie Leebrecht of the Bureau of Charities, to speak on her work in the county aid commissioner's office. Roll call will be current events.

Music Recital

In Los Angeles

Appearing last week in recital at the Los Angeles studio of Frieda Peycke, Miss Audrey Isbell, charming Orange girl and equally well-known in this city, contributed two groups of musical readings to the interesting program. Of her work, the Pacific Coast Musician said "it shows her marked development as an artist," an opinion in which all who heard her, concurred.

In the past year, Miss Isbell has taken prominent part in programs given in this city, Orange, San Diego, Long Beach, Los Angeles, Fullerton, Anaheim and Balboa, and just a few evenings ago met with marked success when she gave two groups with the Stearns-Taylor trio at Newport Ebell club.

Her next professional appearance will be before the Soroptimists at Hotel Virginia, Long Beach. Attending a recital last Saturday afternoon at the Frieda Peycke studio in Los Angeles, Miss Isbell was accompanied by one of her pupils, Miss Cynthia Kirven of this city. Added interest to her work as teacher, has followed the recent announcement that she has been appointed Orange county representative and teacher of the Peycke studio.

Presents Young Pianist A most intriguing program has been announced for a recital in which Phyllis Lucy Keyes will present Miss Margaret Carothers, talented young pianist of this city, at the Chandler Music room, Friday night at 8 o'clock.

Miss Carothers, blonde young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carothers of Wellington avenue, is considered to have a decided future in music and her playing now gives great pleasure to her friends and associates.

In the recital of Friday night she will present three piano groups with the readings which another talented young Santa Ana girl will give—Miss Beth Nunn, who has not announced the names of the numbers she will give.

Miss Carothers will open the program with "Shepherd's All and Maiden's Fair" by Nevin followed by Palmgren's "May Night." For her second appearance she will play "Irish Tune from County Derry" by Percy Grainger, "Arago" by Debussy and "Nocturne for the Left Hand" by Scriabine and to complete the program, "Lotus Land" and "Dance Negre" two Scott compositions.

Vocalist Assists Mrs. John Wehrly and Ollimae Enlow Matthews were in Los Angeles Monday, guests at a meeting of the St. Cecilia Musical club, one of the more prominent musical organizations of Southern California. The meeting was at the beautiful Zobelev home where the program was given under the direction of Hulda Dietz, Mrs. Wehrly's niece.

Mrs. Dietz is quite as well-known in this city as she is in Los Angeles, and quite as noted for her marked talents and musical ability. As director of the First Methodist church choir, she has presented some noted oratorios and the Easter vesper service still remains in the memories of all who heard it, as one of the outstanding spring music events.

According to Mrs. Matthews whose proficiency with the violin is a constant joy to her friends and whose technical knowledge renders her opinions valuable, Mrs. Dietz's own numbers on the program formed one of the nicest events of the afternoon. She sang a group of three songs to the piano accompaniment of Mrs. Hennion Robinson. They included a Debussy number as well as one of Mrs. Robinson's own compositions.

Violin Recital

A violin recital is being planned for Saturday evening when Prof. Andrist of Tustin will present his violin pupils at the Methodist church, Eleventh and Orange streets, Huntington Beach, at 7:30 o'clock. The opening number will be played by thirty violins. Several of the teacher's own compositions will be played by him by request, with Mrs. Andrist at the

Birthday Event Down At Costa Mesa Has Unique Features

The very informality of a joint birthday celebration staged recently by a friendly little group down at Costa Mesa, added to the interest which an account of the party had for their many friends in this community. The fact that Mrs. C. G. Huston, Mrs. J. W. Wherry, Mrs. Wilfrid Rountree and W. H. Evans, all celebrated birthdays just a few days apart, seemed to justify plans for a joint birthday party. And especially after Mrs. Evans won an ice-cream ticket at the recent successful Friday Afternoon club bazaar at the Mesa and had a large freezer of the delicacy at her order at any time.

Such a chain of events could mean nothing else but a party and so plans were perfected for a gay merry-making at the Rountree bungalow on Victoria avenue, at the Mesa where a wealth of flowers gathered from the garden, offered decoration. Each of the birthday celebrants was aware of the plans in a general way, yet each was surprised at some unexpected development. Mrs. Evans managed to keep most of the affair a secret from her husband, the sole masculine honored guest.

Mrs. Huston, Mrs. Rountree and Mrs. Wherry baked delicious cakes to be served with the ice cream and the refreshment hour was a most enjoyable one. Entertainment was extremely varied and Dr. Wherry proved the star of the evening when he gave a clever parody on Kipling's "I Learned About Women From Her," bringing in the names of the different members of the fair sex, present.

Mrs. Wherry played the musical background for the reading.

Greatly enjoying the unique party were Mr. and Mrs. Wilfrid Rountree whose home offered its hospitality, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Wherry, Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Huston, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Guthrie and Miss Alice Plummer.

Star Social Club

The bridge club of Santa Ana chapter O. E. S. will be entertaining Friday afternoon at a May-day bridge party at the home of Mrs. Jennie Shippe, 633 North Van Ness street. Playing will begin promptly at 2 o'clock and members who find it impossible to be present are asked to telephone 920-W.

In addition to ensemble numbers, the program will include solo work by Gussie Lanfranco, Margorie Lanfranco, Warden and Evelyn Huntin, Martin Bowman, Ruby Gray, Harry Kadu, Alfred Loerch, Edgar Tooles, Alvin Edwards, Marion Nau and Oswald Ulrich.

Mrs. G. F. Andrist, Miss Edwards, Mrs. C. Kling, Miss Marguerite Anderson and Edna Warner will act as accompanists. An added feature of interest will be the reading, "Jennie Entertains Company," by Miss Ruby Gray.

Texas Guest Honored By Club Members At Luncheon

Honoring a delightful Waco, Texas, guest in the city, Mrs. J. E. Wheatley, was a pleasantly appointed luncheon given Monday at the Dr. J. E. Green home, 1411 South Cypress street, where Mrs. Green greeted members of a club which has been organized for the past seventeen years, and a few friends.

Mrs. Wheatley has been the guest of different members of this club for the past week or ten days but will return tomorrow to her Waco home. The luncheon was one of a series of farewell events. Mrs. Green chose yellow as her decorative color and nasturtiums, daisies and other garden flowers were used most effectively. Covers around the sunny table were placed for the hostess and her honor guest, Mrs. Green and Mrs. Wheatley, Mrs. Clarence Stamm of Culver City; Mrs. B. B. Hull, Pomona; Mrs. Berenice Montgomery, Downey; Mrs. Carolyn White, Fullerton, and Mrs. George Klever of this city, all members of the club so long established, and Mrs. Margaret Carr, Pomona; Mrs. O. E. Clockster, Ontario, and Mrs. W. S. Chandler, Santa Ana, guests.

Hand-work and lively chat occupied the after-luncheon interval. Again yesterday a friendly group including all the former club members, were entertained at luncheon at the home of Mrs. Charles White in Fullerton.

Informal Party Honors Birthday

A group of relatives and old-time friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Clara Andrews, 615 West Tenth street, Sunday afternoon, to celebrate Mrs. Andrews' birthday anniversary, their coming being a joyful surprise to their hostess.

The time was pleasantly spent in conversation, in listening to selections rendered on the piano, and in listening to selections rendered on the piano, and in singing favorite old songs. Refreshments brought by the guests as part of the surprise were served.

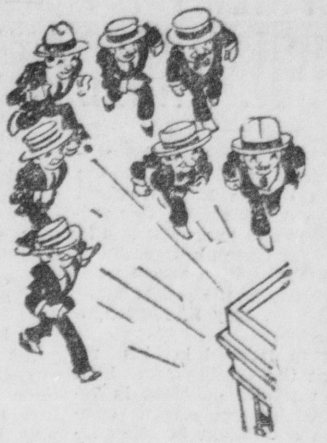

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. William Adamson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Waite, Miss Minnie Young, Miss Rose Young, Miss Miriam Adamson, Mrs. Charles Lipscombe and Miss Ruth Andrews of the home.

MORE TRAINING EQUIPMENT AT SCHOOL URGED

Recommendations that the special committee in charge of the preparation of the 1925-26 school budget give consideration to needed extensions and improvements in the vocational training department of the Santa Ana high school were made yesterday at the school board meeting by Dr. Roy S. Horton, a school trustee.

Dr. Horton implied in his remarks that the Santa Ana high school is woefully deficient in vocational training equipment, compared with equipment in other institutions of similar size and corresponding importance.

Asked for an explanation, J. A. Cranston, city superintendent of schools, and Principal D. K. Hammond, of the high school, intimated that there is considerable room for improvement along the lines indicated by Dr. Horton.

Following further discussion on the subject, Superintendent Cranston suggested that the board members visit high schools in nearby communities, and see for themselves what is being done in the way of vocational education.

Thursday, May 7, was the date set on which the school board members, accompanied by Superintendent Cranston, Principal Hammond, and some of the vocational training teachers, will visit the Long Beach high school, the Inglewood high school, and the Roosevelt high school, in Los Angeles.

AMERICAN CROOKS INVADE ENGLAND

LONDON, England, April 29.—Criminals of the worst class, thrown out of the United States, have entered England in large numbers and are a troublesome complication to the crime question in Britain.

Hunted out of America, crooks of the most dangerous character, according to Scotland yard, now infest London.

They are believed to be responsible for almost the whole of certain classes of crime that have been increasing lately—especially pickpocketing, operation of con games, and hold-ups by motor-bandits—and English detectives find it difficult to capture or battle them.

When they are caught, they are denied if American citizenship is proved; otherwise tried and sentenced to British jails.

The inroads of these Americans have added vastly to the difficulties of the London police. Until an American crook performed a "safe-blowing job," the metropolitan authorities had never had a case of precisely similar nature to encounter.

The same is also true of raids by motor bandits, which is considered here a peculiarly American crime.

New legislation affecting aliens may be the result of the situation.

Italy's receipts are now in excess of her expenditures, the January surplus being 15,000,000 lire, as compared with a deficit of 38,000,000 for January, 1924.

DIDN'T LIKE "THE BAD MAN"

Editor Register—I feel that I must write a few words concerning the production of "The Bad Man."

Having a season ticket for the community entertainments that have been given from time to time for the benefit and uplift of the people of Santa Ana, I went to see and hear "The Bad Man" on Friday night.

The acting and speaking of the whole cast was fine. Of that I had no criticism at all to make. As I had read in The Register the day before that it had made a great HIT in Santa Ana, I sat anxiously waiting for the curtain. Soon we saw a pretty scene, the inside of a ranch house. The play began and as it advanced I became disturbed and finally dissatisfied, at the language and sentiment. I do think it time for Santa Ana to wake up and DEMAND BETTER THINGS.

A scream? Yes, but an under-world story was thrust upon cultured people who for a little diversion have gone to a "community play."

I just sat and wondered what the boys and girls and all young people think of us, to sanction by our presence such a production. Do things of that kind exist? Yes. But why reproduce a thing, including bad language, that is not in any way uplifting and enjoyable? I was not only ashamed to be one in the audience, but made up my mind then and there to be more careful in spending money to be entertained.

However, I will say the music and baritone solo were beautiful. Also the director must have been fine.

MRS. FANNIE LASH.

OFFICERS FOR COUNTY FAIR SEPT. 22 TO 26 ARE SELECTED

Lake Is Named President and Stanley Secretary-Manager of Association

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE WILL BE INSTITUTED

Union Pacific Property on East Sixth Street Will Be Used For Display

Executive board, to manage the county fair in September, was appointed yesterday by President S. W. Stanley, of the Orange County Farm bureau. Members of the board then elected their officers, and selected the time and place for the big exhibition. Officers are: President, H. A. Lake, Garden Grove; vice president, Mrs. William Kelsey, Garden Grove; treasurer, Frank L. Purinton, Santa Ana; secretary-manager, A. M. Stanley, Other members of the board are C. M. Hollingshead, Anaheim; Frank A. Kirker, Fullerton; John Ragan, Villa Park; Mrs. E. M. Bradley, Santa Ana.

Fair September 22 to 26. The board set September 22 to 26 as the dates for the fair and selected the Union Pacific property on East Sixth street as the place. The site consists of seven acres.

The board president is one of the best known men in Orange county. He is president of the Associated Chambers of Commerce and president of the harbor commission.

Stanley, the manager for the fair, is secretary-manager of the farm bureau.

With the executive board in operation, steps will be taken at once to secure 100 members or more for the Orange County Fair association, which will act as financial sponsor for the fair.

Under a plan worked out several weeks ago, each member of the association will agree to become liable for $100 in case the fair is not a financial success. It is pointed out that this is merely a precaution and indications are that the 1925 fair will be one of the biggest in this history of Orange county.

Manufacturers to Exhibit. The fair will not be confined exclusively to agricultural exhibits. Every manufacturer in the county will be invited to have an exhibit.

PASTOR TELLS CLUB WORK HAS NO SUBSTITUTE

Industry, honesty, sobriety, love, reverence, courage, vigilance—these are the seven pillars in the Temple of Wisdom.

The declaration was made by the Rev. Daniel F. Fox, Pasadena, speaking at yesterday's Rotary meeting at St. Ann's Inn. The speaker was introduced by Ralph C. Smedley, member of the boys' work committee of the Santa Ana Rotary club.

"Industry," said the Rev. Mr. Fox, "is the key to achievement. There are some people who wear themselves out trying to find a substitute for work. There is no substitute. The lazy person gets nowhere and has it in for the world because he gets nowhere. He can blame nobody but himself."

Speaking of sobriety, the Pasadena pastor declared that the harm from bootleg liquor is a growing menace.

"The man who sells bootleg," said he, "is a criminal, and the man who drinks it is a fool."

At yesterday's meeting, it was announced that the new officers of the club would take charge at the close of next Tuesday's meeting, which will be in charge of ex-presidents of the club, Mac O. Robbins, William H. Spurgeon, J. C. Hayden and Earl S. Morrow, and the outgoing president, Dr. M. A. Patton. The new officers are T.

COLLEGE HONOR STUDENTS WILL ENJOY OUTING

Honor students of the Santa Ana junior college will be feted by the college faculty in the annual Mission Inn party at Riverside, Tuesday, May 5, it was announced by Miss Lella Watson, advisor for the scholarship honor society.

Each year, college students with high rating are taken for the trip to the Mission Inn. Twenty-five students, together with the college faculty, are expected to attend the party.

Students and faculty members are to leave from the college Tuesday afternoon. Complete plans for the affair are in charge of Miss Watson, who is acting for the college faculty.

B. Stephenson, president, and P. G. Beissel, vice president, William McKay, as secretary, and Alex Brownridge, as treasurer, were re-elected.

Following his address to the Rotarians Dr. Fox appeared before the student body of the high school and delivered the same address.

EDITOR TELLS RESIGNATIONS EXCHANGE CLUB SUBMITTED TO ABOUT PAPERS SCHOOL BOARD

Mason Yould of Register Describes Experiences In Quest of News

Mason Yould, assistant managing editor of The Register, was the principal speaker at the meeting at Ketter's cafe yesterday of the Santa Ana Exchange club. The speaker related many of his personal experiences as a reporter on various papers in the east and discussed the aims and purposes of a newspaper.

Recounting interviews with former Presidents Taft, Harding and Wilson, Yould said that he found men high in official life easy to interview. He said they always had live topics to discuss and usually were ready to discuss big news features with reporters.

Comparing the present day reporter with that of a decade ago and the various methods used then to manufacture news, Yould told of how three reporters in Omaha "interviewed" Secretary of War Garrison, when they missed meeting a train on which Garrison was supposed to be traveling.

After missing the train the reporters, fearful of the ire of their city editors, "doped out" an interview with the secretary of war. The following day all were called before their city editors to explain the story, in view of the fact that Garrison had been detained in Chicago because of illness.

Tells About Cub. Yould told of a cub reporter on a midwest newspaper who, when reminded for failure to turn in a "copy," faked a story about a man wearing a red rose waiting for a girl at the depot.

The girl failed to appear, according to the cub's report, and the next day he was asked to "follow up" the story. For three days the reporter wrote of the pitiful plight of the man with the red rose waiting for the girl who never appeared. Finally, fearing people would be looking for the man, the reporter donned a rose and appeared at the depot.

The following day, a maid with a red rose appeared. This was looked for by the reporter, but the lass told of feeling sorry for the man and so came to his rescue. The reporter, however, put in a bad week and it was only by the merest chance that he escaped with a fake story that turned into a real one.

Reports Are Presented. Reports were made by Floyd Croddy on the charter presentation to the Riverside club on Saturday evening, and by Merle Morris, on a meeting of representatives of various clubs of the Southland, held Saturday evening in Los Angeles. At the latter meeting, plans were discussed for the coming district convention of clubs to be held at Santa Barbara on May 15, 16 and 17.

Dr. R. C. Burkett told of his recent trip to Arizona and Horace Fine related some incidents of a trip to Ensenada, Lower California, Saturday and Sunday.

The "stag" party of the club, scheduled for Wednesday evening of next week, was postponed to Thursday evening, May 14, because recent wet weather has made unavailable the gun club where the party is to be staged.

Some of Women Teachers Are Planning to Marry, Superintendent Hints

Resignations were in order at the meeting of the city board of education yesterday afternoon. Action was taken on resignations submitted by the following named teachers:

Pauline Smith, instructor of general science, Frances E. Willard junior high school, to take effect at end of school year.

Violet Wieseman, instructor of social science and vocations, Frances E. Willard junior high school, to take effect at end of school year.

Ruth B. Violet, instructor of music, Frances E. Willard junior high school, to take effect at end of school year.

Resignation of Covington. Edward B. Covington Jr., instructor of physical education, Santa Ana high school, to take effect at end of school year.

Eleanor Sturgeon, instructor of social science, Julia Lathrop junior high school, to take effect at end of school year.

Esther A. Anderson, instructor of English, Julia Lathrop junior high school, to take effect at end of school year.

Helen Walker, instructor of general science, Julia Lathrop junior high school, to take effect at end of school year.

Science Teacher Quits. Vilma Benson, instructor of general science, Frances E. Willard junior high school, to take effect at end of school year.

John W. Reel, physical education, Julia Lathrop junior high school, to take effect at end of school year.

No reasons were given in the resignations, but J. A. Cranston intimated that some wanted to go to districts where there were better opportunities for promotion, and that some of the women teachers were planning marriage.

Bright Students Retarded by Dull, Speaker Asserts

Methods of education in the public schools are hampering the expression of genius by the exceptional student, it was charged by Dr. J. Harold Williams, research investigator in the schools of Los Angeles, in addressing the meeting of the Santa Ana teachers' institute yesterday afternoon at the high school.

"The saying that 'genius will out' is false," asserted the speaker. "In our present educational system, the best training is given to the lagging students, while superior classmates are neglected."

"It is not too extreme a view to hold that the superior students are actually retarded in progress by their slower classmates."

Dr. Williams explained the advancement being made through objective tests and measurements in rating students. Pointing to a new era in education, he said that the segregation of students according to ability was becoming widespread among progressive schools.

"The grading of students is more likely to be accurately accomplished by careful tests than by allowing subjective feelings of teachers to be an influence. Educational measurement is an advanced step."

LOCAL SCHOOL CHILDREN TO BE EXAMINED BY PHYSICIANS

Santa Ana physicians in cooperation with teachers and nurses, will conduct examinations at the city schools for defects and predisposition to disease as part of a child welfare program. Special attention will be given to underweight pupils.

HEALTH OFFICER STRESSES VALUE OF PHYSICAL TESTS AS PART OF CHILD WELFARE

"The childhood shows the man as morning shows the day." These lines from John Milton, the famous poet, were quoted today by Dr. V. G. Presson, county health officer, in stressing the need for child welfare through organized and properly supervised activities.

"If greater care had been given in former years to the physical and mental condition of children of school age," said Dr. Presson, "probabilities are that today there would be less need for penitentiaries, insane asylums, poor farms and similar institutions. In fact, the patronage of these places would have been considerably reduced."

He further asserted that if only a fraction of the money now being spent on penal, reform and charitable institutions, not to mention the cost of maintaining police and for child welfare under proper supervision, there would be less crime and destitution with an all-around economic saving and increased efficiency.

Need to Be Fit. The child about to enter school should be made physically fit for the new life upon which he is about to enter, Dr. Presson said, as he will encounter new dangers in his contact with other children, and burdens will begin to gather on his young shoulders. Entering school is the beginning of the living of life, he pointed out.

Here are a few suggested questions for each parent to ask before the youngster is sent to school:

Does he reflect the full physical vigor expected of him when he becomes an adult?

Are his eyes, ears and teeth in good condition?

Has he any physical defects such as faulty posture and malnutrition, that may handicap his school progress and prevent his full development into the able-bodied adult of his generation?

Will he be able, physically as well as mentally, to take his place in the conduct of the future affairs of life?

Now Is Right Time. According to the county health officer, infancy is the most important time of a child's life, and the assurance of his physical preparation to enter school constitutes the most important duty of his parents.

There are now many available opportunities for securing complete physical examinations of pre-school children without cost.

The state department of physical education and the state bureau of child welfare have made arrangements with health officers, nurses, private physicians and social welfare organizations by means of which such examinations will be held at different points in Orange county during the month of May.

SCHOOL SAVINGS SYSTEM SHELVED AT CHAMBERS' MEET

No action was taken at yesterday's school board meeting on a proposition submitted by the local branch of the Bank of Italy for establishment of a school savings system in the school district.

In discussion, it was brought out that the First National bank of Santa Ana is not in a position to lend its aid to such an undertaking; that the Orange County Trust and Savings bank is not interested in the project; and that so far the Farmers and Merchants bank of Santa Ana has not worked up any plan for its operation.

It was suggested by the school trustees that, until all the local banks carrying savings accounts, have agreed upon a uniform plan for handling school savings, no further action should be taken.

Loosen Up That Cold With Musterole

Have Musterole handy when a cold starts. It has all the advantages of grandmother's mustard plaster WITHOUT the blister. You just apply it with the fingers. First you feel a warm tingle as the healing ointment penetrates the pores, then comes a soothing, cooling sensation and quick relief.

Made of pure oil of mustard and other simple ingredients, Musterole is recommended by many nurses and doctors. Try Musterole for bronchitis, sore throat, stiff neck, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, croup, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pains and aches of the back or joints, sore muscles, sprains, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet, colds of the chest. ## LOCAL ACTORS SCORE HIT IN WALKER SKETCH

"Get Your Man," a 30-minute skit presented at Walker's theater last night by four Santa Ana persons, Mrs. Lillian Richardson, Griff Barnett, Ray Simpson and George Richardson, proved to be one of the biggest attractions seen at the local theater in the past several months.

The play, short and snappy, tells the story of a member of the Royal Mounted Police officer, who is searching for "the killer," a murderer with a price on his head. It is the night before Christmas and the man has captured a deputy sheriff, bringing him to his cabin in the Rockies. "So I won't be alone on Christmas," a love story is woven into the play, which, with its dramatic finish, the clearing of a name and the capture of the "killer" after he is shot through the wrist, makes the playlet exciting every minute.

The actors live their parts. There is nothing of the amateur in the play, and from the applause the cast received following the drop of the curtain, Santa Ana theatergoers enjoyed immensely every minute of the sketch.

Barnett takes the part of the Mounted Police officer, Richardson, the "killer," Simpson, the sheriff, and Mrs. Richardson ably carries out her part as the girl in the story.

Plans are being made by Richardson to book the show either with West Coast or Orpheum for a few weeks, while he stated last night that the play would probably be shown in Fullerton and Anaheim in the near future.

Special scenery and lighting effects add greatly to the performance.

Think Diploma Mill Broken As Two Are Nabbed

CLEVELAND, O., April 29.—A medical "diploma mill" was believed broken up here with the arrest of two men. A third is being sought in Buffalo as leader of the organization.

The diplomas are said to have been shipped here from Buffalo. The men arrested gave their names as Dr. Seymour Richardson and Dr. Elmer A. Shuker.

Richardson was charged with selling papers purporting to give authority to practice medicine, and Shuker was charged with practicing medicine without a license.

Rehearing Sought On L. A. Crossing

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—Petition for a rehearing in a grade crossing separation ordered recently by the state railroad commission in the city of Los Angeles has been filed here.

The two railroads affected are the Santa Fe and the Salt Lake. The crossing is at Santa Fe avenue and Butte street, involving also the tracks of the Los Angeles Street railway.

Cost of the grade separation ordered by the commission would be over a quarter of a million dollars.

Promises Gift of $10,000 for Meet

NEW YORK, April 29.—A gift of $10,000 to the Pan-Pacific Social and Economic conference, to be held at Honolulu in July, has been made by John D. Rockefeller Jr. The gift is conditional upon the successful raising of $65,000 to complete the amount needed by the conference leaders.

Rat Brings Fame To Portland Man

PORTLAND, Ore., April 29.—Ira N. Gabrielson has the rare distinction of having a rat named after him.

"Gabe," as he is known to his fellow workers with the U. S. biological survey here, received the honor when the government decided to name a rodent peculiar to the Rogue river valley in Oregon "Gabrielson's kangaroo rat."

Gabe hasn't objected to the humorous elements of his official recognition, while his fellow workers declare the naming of the creature was a real reward for the Portland biologist.

He received the distinction because of a large amount of research work he did in studying the rat. It appears to be a combination of a rat and a kangaroo. The rat has small fore legs, like other rats, but well developed and powerful hind legs, which are used to hop about, much as an Australian kangaroo does.

FAMOUS "SCREEN MOTHER" IN YOST PICTURE

If you didn't like your special cinema "crush" in his or her last picture, don't jump on them too severely. It may not have been their fault.

Mary Carr, famous mother of the screen, who has one of the important roles in "East of Broadway," a comedy-drama of New York life, at the Yost theater, declares that picture players are seldom ever captains of their own souls on the screen.

This most loved of cinema characters states that she prefers the stage to the screen because a player's interpretation behind the footlights is usually more representative of their art.

"The ability of actors can seldom be accurately judged by their screen portrayals," asserts Mrs. Carr. "The stories are frequently not those for which they are adapted, and even if such is not the case, their interpretation of a role is usually dictated by the director. Should they escape both of these handicaps, then they have the film editor with whom to reckon, and often their scenes are muddled in the cutting room."

HELENE CHADWICK STARS IN WEST END FILM

Helene Chadwick, screen star winner of many beauty contests, had a number of narrow escapes from death in making her latest film production of Harold Bell Wright's "The Re-creation of Brian Kent."

Many of her friends who witnessed the film in a preview Hollywood showing, declared that Helene Chadwick as Betty Jo does the finest work of her screen career.

The Principal company was going "on location" for some of the river "shots," when Miss Chadwick experienced the first of her hair-breath escapes. In the California redwood forest, through which the production unit was passing at the time, a wood cutter was felling a gigantic tree. It was headed direct for Miss Chadwick who owes her life to Kenneth Harlan, impersonator of Wright's Brian Kent, who seized her just before the monster of the forest crashed to the ground.

Woman Weak and Nervous

From the Green Mountain State of Vermont, Mrs. L. A. Gunmann of Union Village, writes: "I was weak, nervous, all run down and could not walk across the floor without resting, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored my health so I am now working nine hours a day. I wish all sick and suffering women would try it." After three generations of marvelous success Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is considered the most dependable remedy for female ills.—Adv.

AMARANTH ORDER RECEIVES MEMBERS

The Huntington Beach Court 28.—The Huntington Beach Court No. 51, Order of the Amaranth, met Saturday night, April 25, at I. O. O. F. hall, Huntington Beach. A delightful 6:30 o'clock pot luck supper was enjoyed by the members. The dining room was a bower of flowers. Beautiful baskets of roses graced the tables and every nook and corner. The hall was aglow with baskets of roses and shrubbery. A class of eight candidates was initiated.

Visitors present were Honored Lady Elizabeth Brook, grand representative for the state of Pennsylvania, and junior past royal matron of Fullerton court; Sir Knight Smalley, junior past royal patron of Fullerton court, also the royal matron and royal patron of Long Beach court. Several officers and members of Fullerton court were also present. A backward party was announced for May 15, to be given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Pile, cards and games to be enjoyed. A children's party is to be given at the next regular meeting of Huntington Beach court, May 23. Members are invited to bring their children and join in the fun.

Police Suppress Harvard Advocate

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., April 29.—The "Dial" edition of the Harvard Advocate has been officially suppressed by Michael H. Crowley, superintendent of police. A general order prohibiting its sale was issued after Crowley had conferred with Judge John Duff, of central municipal court, who decided the current issue of the Advocate was "indecent, obscene, profane and sufficient to corrupt the morals of youth." The "Dial" number of the Advocate was held up by postoffice authorities pending a decision from Washington on its status in connection with the mails.

WHEELER GETS 2-YEAR TERM FOR P. O. THEFT

Charles R. Wheeler, former registry clerk at the Anaheim post office, was sentenced in the federal court in Los Angeles yesterday to serve two years in Leavenworth penitentiary for participation in the mail pouch robbery at Anaheim, Dec. 27, 1923. He was convicted on a charge of receiving stolen post office funds. He is asserted to have received $3440 as his portion of the $25,000 stolen from the mails. His co-conspirators were J. R. Abernathy, former principal of the schools of Anaheim, and J. F. Findlay, mail wagon driver. Sentencing of Wheeler writes this on one of the most sensational robberies in Orange county history. Disclosures shortly after the robbery revealed that three men, held in high esteem in Anaheim, were the perpetrators of the crime. Findlay was the first of the trio to be taken into custody and he told postoffice authorities the full story of the theft. He said Abernathy conceived the scheme to rob the mails when a large shipment of currency was made from an Anaheim bank. Wheeler, through his position as registry clerk, tipped off Abernathy when the $25,000 shipment was made, and by pre-arrangement the pouch containing the currency was taken from Findlay as he drove from the postoffice to the depot, the crime being committed after dark.

Talbert

TALBERT, April 29.—Three automobile loads of Talbert persons, Mr. and Mrs. L. Penrod, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Landrum, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wicks and Mr. and Mrs. Alva May, and members of their families, arrived safely in Flisk, Mo., on April 19, according to word received by friends. The trip was made in 18 days. Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, of Chino, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Rogers. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harper entertained Mrs. Harper's mother, Mrs. Lena Patterson, and C. Archer, of Santa Ana, at dinner Sunday. Mrs. A. Jackson, of San Bernardino, motored to Talbert for a week-end visit with her daughter and son-in-law, the Rev. and Mrs. Oscar Gibson. Upon her return Monday morning, Mrs. Jackson was accompanied by her little daughter, Margaret who has been visiting her sister. Pupils of the Talbert school are preparing this week for the district track meet, which is scheduled for Saturday on the Westminster school grounds. Oceanview, Bolsa and Seal Beach schools also will participate. Miss Alpha Gilbert is visiting friends in Monrovia. A number of friends of the late Mrs. Ella Croholm, whose death occurred Thursday in the Orange County hospital, following a long illness, attended on Tuesday morning, the funeral services which were held at 8 o'clock in the Catholic church, in Santa Ana. Mrs. Croholm, who is a sister of Mrs. L. Tinker, of this place, spent some time in her sister's home at the beginning of her illness, and made many friends while here. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Owensson of Long Beach, visited Saturday in the Rogers home here. John Pope attended the funeral in Santa Ana Monday, of John F. Patterson, a pioneer resident of Westminster. William Gibson, a brother of the Rev. Oscar Gibson, and a friend was a visitor at the pashage Sunday.

W. C. T. U. to Hold Meet In Detroit

DETROIT, Mich., April 29.—The 1925 convention of the W. C. T. U. will be held in Detroit on November 19 to 24, inclusive, according to an announcement by Mrs. Anna A. Gordon, of Evanston, Ill., president of the union. About the same time, the Michigan state W. C. T. U., the world's W. C. T. U., the Canadian branch of the organization and the intercollegiate women's prohibition unit will hold conventions here.

Gas Concern Seeks Ventura-L. A. Line

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—The Southern Counties Gas company has applied to the state railroad commission for permission to lay a 13-inch pipe line from the Ventura river oil field to Los Angeles in order to bring ten million cubic feet of natural gas a day into the metropolitan district.

INGROWN NAIL

Turns Right Out Itself

A few drops of "Outgro" in the crevice of the ingrowing nail reduces the inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost over night. "Outgro" is a harmless antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.

India Will Have Entrants In Far Eastern Tourney

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 29.—Details of the seventh biennial Far Eastern games, modeled after the world Olympic games, which will be held in Manila, P. I., from May 10 to 20 this year, have been received at Yale university. In other years the games have been contested between China, Japan, and the Philippines, but this year will witness the entry of a new rival—India. India's delegation will probably not be a full one, but they are expected to upset the "dope" on the games which had previously been figured as a fight between the Philippines and Japan. The team from India will probably consist of track and field athletes and tennis players and they are expected to take away some of the laurels in these events, especially tennis.

The Far Eastern games consist of track, field, baseball, basketball, tennis, swimming, soccer football and volleyball. China has nearly always been the winner in football and volleyball, but the China delegation this year is likely to be an almost negligible quantity on account of the internal troubles in that country. In the last Far Eastern games held in Osaka, Japan, in 1923, the Philippines lost the track and field championships for the first time and although tied with Japan in the number of events won, lost three of the four major ones.

PLAY PRESENTED BY HAPPY WORKERS

WINTERSBURG, April 29.—The comedy, "Jayville Junction," which was presented in the Oceanview school auditorium Monday night by the Happy Worker's society, of Westminster, under the auspices of the Home Missionary society, of the Methodist church was largely attended and proved a big success. Each character in the cast of 31 players played their part exceptionally well and there was a laugh for every minute of the two-act play.

FORMER PITTSBURGH STAR WILL SUCCEED COVINGTON; PIERCE NAMED J. C. PILOT

John Charles (Jack) Winterburn, for three years quarterback at the University of Pittsburgh, will coach the Santa Ana high school football team next fall.

James H. Pierce, former University of Indiana lineman and now assistant mentor at Glendale, will probably have charge of the Santa Ana junior college eleven.

The city board of education formally elected Winterburn and Pierce at its meeting yesterday afternoon after the resignation of Ed Covington, present Poly tankard director, had been accepted.

Winterburn, now coaching at San Mateo high school, virtually has accepted the terms offered him.

Pierce appeared before the board in person and after his election asked for a few days to consider the proposition. He said he had other offers, one at the University of Arizona, it is understood, that would pay him more than Santa Ana could.

Both men, if they sign for the local positions, will assume charge when school opens in September.

Winterburn comes here with what is said to be one of the highest recommendations ever written by Glenn S. ("Pop") Warner, famous Stanford coach. Winterburn was Warner's quarterback on the 1922 Pittsburgh eleven that came West to defeat the Cardinals.

Winterburn is 25 years old, 5 feet 7 inches in height and weighs 190 pounds. He is unmarried. He is a graduate of Elizabeth, (Penn.) high school and the University of Pittsburgh where he played varsity football and baseball for three seasons. On his graduation at Pittsburgh in 1923 he began coaching at Donora, (Penn.) high school. He came to California last year, took charge at San Mateo and had the strongest eleven in Northern California until ineligible of several star players wrecked his team.

Pierce is a veritable giant. He is 6 feet 4 inches in height and weighs 215 pounds. He is 25 years old. Graduating from the University of Indiana in 1921 he immediately went to the University of Arizona where he was assistant varsity coach until 1923. He was line coach of the Glendale high school team, Southern California champions, last fall. Glendale, it is understood, has made him an attractive offer if he will stay there as assistant pilot.

Acceptance is Expected. Pierce, however, is known to be desirous of having a team of his own to coach and members of the school board are confident he will accept the Santa Ana call.

Written applications were received from candidates and several others made verbal applications. Among those considered for the position were W. B. Herried, former freshmen coach at the University of Washington and now head coach at Santa Maria high school; P. D. Minick, former University of Iowa coach and now associated with the physical education department of the Los Angeles city schools; Eddie Kienholz, former Long Beach high school and Santa Clara college mentor; E. E. Tarr of Pacific Beach.

B. L. Stanley, formerly assistant athletic director at the University of Arizona; John W. Reel, athletic coach at the Julia C. Lathrop junior high school here; Ernest W. Johnson, former Ohio University player; Albert Weber, formerly coach of the Denver University School of Commerce; Charles M. Best, former head coach at Purdue and the University of the South; and Bill Hess, assistant coach at U. S. C.

WILCOX BEATS WAYNE NELSON IN SLAB DUEL

McFaddens Bunch Base Hits In Fourth and Nab Fifth League Struggle In Row

Two timely base hits, a pair of wild pitches and an outfield error gave the John McFadden Hardware company indoor baseball team a 4 to 2 victory over the powerful Southern Counties Gas company aggregation and possibly the championship of the Santa Ana Indoor Baseball league at the Poly grounds last night.

Three runs were chased around the four-base circuit on the plays chronicled above and they were enough for Little "Eeny" Wilcox, once out in front, was stung with basehits than a pawnbroker.

Wilcox and Wayne Nelson, the Gas company heaver, put on a thrilling mound battle, and the former had a slight edge. He put out but two safeties, one of these of the scratchiest variety and he whiffed 14 of his opponents. Nelson allowed seven hits and fanned 15.

"Jim" Nelson, the first man up in the first frame, scored for the losers. He drew a walk, went to third when Wilbur Phipps threw wildly to catch him stealing and came all the way home when Heard missed Anderson's throw from the outfield.

Successive bingles by J. Anderson and F. Anderson and a wild pitch allowed the McFaddens to tie the score in the second. The real outbreak occurred in the fourth canto when Wilcox and Phipps hit safely. Nelson threw two balls wildly and L. Nelson muffed J. Anderson's line drive to center.

The Gas company tallied its second and last run in the fifth when Miller doubled to left and came home on an infield out.

The Fluor Construction company and the Kiwanis club teams play tonight. The box score:

NEW YORK—Babe Ruth is still on the way to recovery and is doing well but he will not be able to leave the hospital for at least two weeks, Dr. Edward King said today. The reports circulated that the Babe would never be able to play again were said to be unfounded. "I think he will be able to play better than he ever did," Dr. King said.

NEW YORK—Ray Casey, San Francisco and John Hennessy, Indianapolis, have been offered an appointment on the team that is to be sent by the United States Lawn Tennis association to London this summer to compete in a special team match and to enter the Wimbledon championships. Bill Tilden, Vinnie Richards and Bill Johnston were not offered places.

Billy Evans SAYS

UHLE AND LUQUE

Two of the biggest pitching disappointments last season were George Uhle of Cleveland and Adolfo Luque of Cincinnati. Counted upon to turn in a big bunch of victories for their clubs, both failed miserably.

Uhle, leading American league hurler two years ago, won but nine games for the speaker entourage in 1924. He lost 15 times, showing a percentage drop of 243 points.

Luque, a pair of campaigns back, held the same position in the National circuit as Uhle did in the American. That season the Cuban copped 27 games against just eight defeats. In 1924, however, he won but 10, losing 15, a decline of 371 points.

In a word, Uhle and Luque showed form reversals far out of the ordinary, all things considered.

LOOK GOOD AGAIN

This season, though, Uhle and Luque again appear to stack up in real style. They give evidence of returning to their winning ways of two years back. For each has got off to a good start.

For the campaign is early yet, and their performances may be only the well-known flash in the bucket. But judging from present indications, both should chalk up a goodly quota of victories. Far better, at least, than was the case in 1924.

With these two fellows in shape and hitting their real stride, the chances of the Indians and Reds to get somewhere in the race are greatly enhanced. For "victory" pitchers, like Uhle and Luque two years ago, are a bit uncommon in these days of lively baseball and heavy batting.

Their efforts are certain to be watched with more than the usual amount of interest as the campaigns go along.

POOLE OF ATHLETICS

Connie Mack seems to have picked up a mighty clever replacement for the disabled Joe Hauser. He is Jimmy Poole, former Portland star.

Grabbed in a hurry by the lean Connie following an injury to Hauser, Poole has thus far come through in nice style. Fact is, the Coaster has sort of dried up the tears that were being shed for his predecessor.

Poole has been hitting at a great clip and his work afield has been of a high order as well. In his first seven games he crashed out 11 hits in 36 trips to the rubber, an average of .423. Quite a few of the clouts were extra-base affairs, too.

The tot's sensational work has, no doubt, sort of restored Mack's faith in Coast League players, a faith which had been vehemently shattered a year ago by the "explosion" of Paul Strand, highly touted Salt Lake City pastimer.

CALTECK WINS 6 TO 3 MATCH FROM COLLEGE

By ALFRED AULT

Scores by protest tactics beat the Santa Ana junior college baseball team in a game yesterday afternoon at Pasadena against the Calteck varsity nine. The final score of 6 to 3 included four runs for the winners which were not admitted by the Santa Ana players.

At one time a run was counted on a two base steal from a passed ball. Again a doubtful decision favoring the "engineers" permitted three runs to be chalked up, virtually clinching the game for the strong varsity aggregation.

Except for telling blows in the second and third innings, the Calteck team was held scoreless by "Crip" Marston, junior college southpaw.

A revival of fighting spirit in the last inning nearly caused a re-enactment of the trick work here when the locals tied the score in the last inning. Abe Johnson plastered out a home run with Lutz on base. The inning had the proportions of a rally for a period until finally checked by the winners.

The box score:

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—Joe Kelly, outfielder with the San Francisco Seals of the Pacific Coast league, today requested and received his unconditional release on May 1.

NEW YORK, April 29.—"There was nothing else that a good sportsman could have done," Jake Weber, Fordham track coach, said today, in telling why he had sent a team that had been out of a mile race only five minutes, in against the great Georgetown two mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival last Saturday.

"The others all pulled out either because they were too scared of Georgetown or they didn't want to get credit for a world's record," he said.

Probably one of the most unique parties of the season was held one evening last week, at the home of Miss Minnie C. Childs, in honor of her birthday.

Upon returning from the Ebell club, she was very busily engaged opening the various letters and parcels sent by many friends, when steps upon the porch announced company. To Miss Childs' surprise, they were the same friends she had so wonderfully entertained at dinner the previous Sunday, but this time, they were self-invited. Such wonderful costumes, such as were seen in the dear, dead days of the past, worn with trains and pompadours. Several hours of real fun was had, playing old-fashioned games among which was the old favorite, "Spin the plate."

W. G. Otis of the Orange County Trust and Savings Bank was the august judge who levied the fines, which were anything from singing to dancing a jig.

They brought with them, besides many birthday gifts, their own refreshments of strawberries, ice cream, red apples, candies, nuts and coffee, also a birthday cake baked by Mrs. J. H. Vance.

The guests were Messrs. and Mesdames W. G. Otis of Santa Ana, J. A. Vance, W. G. Robbins, C. A. Vance and Misses Louise and Charlotte Vance.

Capital Letter

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Do their laws over-regulate the American people?

"That's not for me to say," replied U. S. Attorney General John G. Sargent. "My business, as attorney general, is to enforce the law. Making laws is a legislative function. I'm a strong believer in each man sticking to his own job."

"If I were a legislator, I'd have something to say about law-making. In the department of justice my duty is to administer the laws as I find them. If I think a change should be made, I may recommend it. I've no right or desire to criticize otherwise."

"Most of our troubles seem to me due to intolerance—a failure to understand our neighbors. In this country our laws change pretty fast, too. Accustomed to the old established laws, we violate the new ones unreflectingly. I believe that's how most of our new regulations are broken—thoughtlessly."

"Generally, I think the American people mean to obey our laws."

"Doesn't our multiplicity of regulations," I asked, "hamper law enforcement? Doesn't it make for a general disrespect of law? Anyway, there are more arrests just now than ever. Prison populations are increasing."

"Our laws," said the attorney general, "in the very nature of things, must naturally expand in proportion to our growth, nationally and internationally, for we live in a period of constant progress, social and industrial. You emphasize that there are more arrests for infractions of the law than ever before. To me that suggests better law enforcement, not laxity."

"As to prohibition?" I queried. "Absence of saloons, less drunkenness, a better moral atmosphere everywhere, are evidences that prohibition has wrought great good."

"But secret drinking?"

"I'm not aware of much."

"Still, don't large numbers of those who class as pretty good citizens habitually disregard many of today's laws regulative of personal conduct?"

"When a man deliberately and continually breaks the law," said Attorney General Sargent, "I can't class him as a good citizen."

A tarpaulin-covered truck broke down, just across the District of Columbia line, in Maryland, opposite the home of a distinguished scientist attached to the bureau of standards. Ringing the scientist's bell, "Can I use your garage while I get help?" asked the driver. "Sure." The truck housed with some difficulty, the driver left.

A sudden suspicion! The scientist lifted the tarpaulin. Boozed! The angry scientist, a dry, telephoned authorities in Washington. A motorload of agents arrived—investigated. Then, "I'd like to borrow your phone," quoth the leader. A cryptic conversation ensued. "Now," said the leader, "we'll hide in these bushes till the guy comes back."

The scientist watched from his porch. Another truck appeared.

The original driver and a helper hooked a chain onto the cripple. "Now," thought the scientist, "for the arrest!" Instead, the truck disappeared in a cloud of dust. "Outside our jurisdiction," explained the dry leader, emerging from the bushes. "We couldn't do nothin'. I'm afraid he got clean away."

"Too much red tape!" complained the artless scientist, telling me the story later. "That's why prohibition can't be enforced."

SUPPLY OF FEED BELIEVED AMPLE

By H. E. WAHLBERG
County Farm Advisor

A report just received by the farm advisor's office indicating that the supply of feed stuffs and forage, including grain, high protein concentrates and manufactured feeds is apparently sufficient until the new feed crops become available, and the price trend based on approximately normal conditions is more likely to work downward than upward.

The 1924 hay crop was the largest on record. A large part of the increase was in timothy producing territory and timothy prices will probably remain below those of last year. The supply of alfalfa, clover and other legumes appears to be fully adequate with prices practically the same as last year until the new crop becomes available.

It seems probable that the consuming demand for feed grains for this period will not equal that of 1924. The use of feed grains, which depends quite largely on the number of domestic animals available to consume such feedstuffs, also is considerably influenced by available supplies of high protein concentrates. A substantial decrease in the number of hogs is assured. The number of beef cattle has also decreased materially, while there has only been a slight increase in the number of sheep and dairy animals. Moreover, as feed grains are at the present time quoted relatively higher in most sections than are the high protein concentrates, the increased use of commercial feeds will lead to a corresponding decrease in the amount of grains fed. Furthermore, it is likely that the demand for prepared feeds, and feed grains from the poultry trade will be less than it was during 1924, owing to a less liberal feeding policy and smaller numbers of poultry on farms.

The large crop of oats in 1924 assures an ample supply of this grain for feed, although the scarcity of oats is causing a larger use of oats, prices for which are relatively lower than for other grains. Exports this year to date have been small, with no indication of any material increase in the export demand. Without an important export outlet, the oats crop must be utilized largely on farms.

The supply of barley is limited and prices have advanced because of an active export demand and the high price of corn. Less barley is available for feed than a year ago and the supply will no doubt be largely consumed before the new crop is available.

Despite the very large decrease, approximately 600,000,000 bushels, in the corn crop and the apparently unsatisfactory condition of pastures in western and southwestern states, these factors will be largely offset by the availability of other grains and feeds and by the increase in the last hay crop.

TREATMENT OF INSECT PESTS TOLD BY BROCK

By A. A. BLACK
Horticultural Commissioner

At this season of the year, numerous requests have come to this office for remedies for the control of various pests, plant diseases and animal pests that attack truck crops and city gardens.

A very common pest which causes no little concern is the common spotted garden slug, which is to be found in practically every garden. It has but few natural enemies, the common toad being the most important one of these. Most of the feeding is done at night and the slugs spend the day in dark places under old rubbish. One of the first things to be done for successful control is to destroy all unnecessary rubbish which affords hiding quarters for this animal.

Salt lime or soot can be used in order to successfully combat the slug with any of these materials, it is necessary to make a border around the plant about two inches wide. The slug crawls through these materials and they secrete a slimy copiously and exhaust themselves. Baked or boiled white potatoes sprinkled with white arsenic have proven a very effective bait for slugs. Spraying the plants with arsenicals has not proved a satisfactory remedy. A bait has been used, however, in combating slugs which we feel will work successfully against this pest, consisting of calcium arsenic, one part to 16 parts of bran; this is by weight.

Nematodes are responsible for damage to practically all plants grown in gardens and the only remedy is to grow resistant crops on infested lands.

Aphis, thrips and red spider are some of the common sucking insects that occasionally cause damage to vegetable crops. Aphis can be controlled with nicotine, spider with sulphur, and thrip with soap and nicotine.

Cutworms, armyworms and grasshoppers can be combated with a poisoned bait compound of bran, paris green and molasses.

Wireworms are also troublesome and catch crops can be used with some degree of success.

Cabbage worms, cucumber beetles and other biting insects can be controlled by the use of arsenicals.

Fungus diseases can be best controlled with Bordeaux mixture, ammonia copper carbonate spray, and, liver of sulphur.

NEW POTATO PRODUCTION RECORD IS ESTABLISHED IN NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

STOCKTON, Calif., April 29.—San Joaquin county lays claim to all commercial potato production records in the world.

Here are the records: a yield from a twentieth of an acre that would equal 58,718.85 pounds to acre; a yield from a half acre that would equal 57,718.85 pounds to the acre; a yield from one acre of 57,752.75 pounds; an average of 56,240.21 pounds as the yield from four acres and an average of 50,447.24 pounds from 50 acres.

Digging continues and the county expects to establish an equally astounding record for 100-acre production.

Translating some of these figures into bushels, the language of the mid-western farmer, San Joaquin county has a record of some 962 bushels as the yield from one acre. It has a record of approximately 848 bushels an acre from a 50-acre tract.

Here is how it all came about: San Joaquin county has a large area of delta land within its boundaries. The area is divided into island tracts, thousands of acres in each, which are devoted to the production of such crops as corn, beans, potatoes, celery and asparagus.

Frederick H. Rindge, owner of a 7000-acre tract, or "island," as the delta tracts are called, set out this year to get an authenticated record on potato production. He planted some 1500 acres to potatoes as usual and from this selected 130 acres for official tests.

Here are the factors which entered into his producing the record-breaking crop: (1) Sterilization of soil by burning; (2) rotation of crops as regular practice; (3) careful selection of seed; (4) heavy planting; (5) careful attention to irrigation and drainage; (6) clean and frequent cultivation; (7) heavy fertilization; (8) deep plowing.

Rindge planted approximately 18 sacks of seed potatoes to the acre. It cost him $50 an acre for fertilizer. He used one ton of 0-21-21 to the acre. This concentrated fertilizer is declared by experts to be the strongest ever used in the delta. The nature of the soil eliminated the necessity for nitrogen in the formula, potash and phosphate being the elements used.

The British government, according to cable advices received by Gerald Campbell, counsel general at San Francisco, once officially recorded a potato yield of 53,760 pounds. As far as could be learned this was the world record and it was at this record that Rindge aimed.

California and Maine alone, of all the potato-producing centers in the United States, had approached the British record. The former California record of 693 bushels to an acre was made in Nevada county, while Maine claimed a record of 700 bushels.

Worthy of special note was the fact that the new records were made with Burbank potatoes.

AVOCADO CHIEF IS OPTIMISTIC

YORBA LINDA, April 29.—That increased planting of avocados and the enlarged output of fruit will open new markets instead of causing a slump in prices is the opinion of George B. Hodgekin, secretary of the California Avocado Growers' exchange, who was here this week for the annual meeting of district No. 4, held at the Yorba Linda Water company's offices. Southern California now has hundreds of acres planted in the fruit, and many new groves are coming into bearing, but the association is able to market all the fruit, and is finding new markets ready to absorb the first class avocados, he said.

"We are now shipping California avocados to New York and getting higher prices than prevailed a year ago," said Hodgekin. "A design is to be worked out to mark all California fruit, and also to stamp the variety on each fruit, so that the brands proving the best sellers can be determined."

A resolution endorsing this move was adopted by the Yorba Linda growers present at the meeting. Market prices are now 55 and 60 cents per pound, which is considered high for the summer varieties now reaching the market. Hodgekin said the growers should develop fruit to reach the market from January to June, which are the months in which Florida avocados are not available in large quantities.

E. C. Dutton, of Anaheim, director of district No. 4, was re-elected by the growers as their representative on the board. Growers present included C. W. Bowen, E. C. Dutton, Mrs. Lucille Harter, E. D. Gage, W. F. Baker, Otto Keup, Albert Wilson, George T. Kellogg and three new members, who joined at the meeting, A. R. Marshall, E. E. Knight and E. R. Ryan.

The growers here plan to enter fruit in the Valencia orange show at Anaheim. Among the growers planning increased plantings are Harold Marsh, Arthur Benis, A. C. Pickering and W. B. Warren.

There have also been some small plantings of fruit this season on a number of ranches.

Kill Alderman, Wound Mayor of Sofia Suburb

VIENNA, April 29.—Revolutionists have killed the chief alderman and wounded the mayor of Bolana, a suburb of Sofia, according to advices received here from the Bulgarian capital. The mayor and some companions noticed a group of suspicious characters in the street and ordered them arrested. The suspects fired at the mayor and his friends and then fled, dropping a bag containing bombs in their flight.

EGG FARM AT ANAHEIM HAS HIGH RECORD

(Robert H. Lyons in Farm and Orchard Magazine)

The ambition of almost every commercial poultryman is to own a flock of layers noted for high average egg production. In order to obtain this high average for an entire flock, it becomes necessary for the poultryman to purchase stock only from breeders and hatchermen who have systematically culled their flocks over a long term of years. This culling process may be conducted in various ways.

Some breeders rely only on the trapnet; some depend upon observation of the physical characteristics of the birds to aid them in spotting the good and the poor layers. Others base their judgment as to whether a hen will be a heavy producer upon the time of year in which she molts. There are still others who follow methods to a greater or lesser degree. All of these various methods have their strong advocates, and success has come by many routes, so it would be useless to try and set forth any hard and fast rule for all poultrymen to follow, inasmuch as many factors might enter into the discussion.

High Flock Average

After 14 years of line breeding, the Superior Egg farm, situated five miles west of Anaheim, lays claim to a flock of White Leghorns with a flock average production of 175 eggs per hen. The owner, Charles W. Peters and his wife, Elizabeth C. Peters, declare that only by the most painstaking and careful selection, and by continuous culling has the record been achieved. From a modest beginning in 1910 with a flock of 300 yearling hens, the Superior Egg Farm flock has grown to 2000 breeding hens.

Overhead at Minimum

In the operation of this big poultry plant, the item of overhead expense has always been held at a minimum. It might be interesting to note some of the methods employed to increase the average flock production from year to year. Peters says the breeding hens are all two years old or even older, and average in weight better than four pounds each. They are selected for their brightness of eye, width of breast and depth of keel. These factors, together with smoothness of plumage, and a deep red, full, lopped comb, he declares, insure vitality and indicate strength to produce eggs. Vitality of the parent stock is, in Peters' estimation, the key to successful breeding. After passing the vitality test, the breeding hen on this ranch must undergo a test for egg laying ability. She must possess thin, straight pelvic bones, with an abdominal capacity of at least three fingers, the abdominal capacity being the distance between the pelvic and breast bones. This, says Peters, indicates that she possesses the capacity to produce eggs. Both the vitality and capacity tests are necessary and essential, without the other being of little value in itself, this breeder believes.

Seek Vitality, Capacity

In the breeding operations on Superior Egg farm, a combination of vitality and capacity is looked for, as the strength and vigor of the parent stock is transmitted to the offspring in as great a proportion as is egg-producing capacity. Cockerels used in the breeding flock are selected for their vitality from hens that are known to be exceptionally good producers. The early maturing cockerels as a rule, to most things being equal, make the best breeders, according to Peters' experience. Their weights, he says, run from five to seven pounds for cockerels and cock birds. The males are selected to conform very closely to the Standard of Perfection in appearance, with a large, well set, five-pointed comb, good saddle, and well-set tail feathers. They also possess a broad, full breast, and long sloping back. In selecting cockerels, Peters says, his experience has proved that the very late moulting hen is very likely to be a good producer. Accordingly, he selects the very choicest of these late moulting and mates them with the best cockerels to produce cockerels for the following year. In this way, he says, he is able to maintain the strain and gradually build up in succeeding years an increase in the flock average production.

Trapnet Not Used

Although Peters does not trapnet his birds, neither does he question that the trapnet has its place in the poultry industry. For the production of male birds for breeding purposes, the trapnet, he believes is of the utmost value, providing the birds are under trapnet for at least a three-year period. Except as a more or less surface indication of the real worth of the bird, trapnetting during the pullet year alone, he thinks, is of little value.

ASK PROFESSOR TO HELP SOLVE
ALL PROBLEMS

GRAND FORKS, N. D., April 29.—Even the eternal triangle can be reduced to terms of chemistry in the belief of jealous wives and husbands. They come with hundreds of other clients, including lawyers, doctors, farmers, capitalists, administrators, swindlers and flappers to Dr. A. G. Abbott, head of the chemistry department of the University of North Dakota, seeking to have their problems solved in his laboratory.

Dr. Abbott is asked to do everything from solving a mysterious murder to prescribing a style of dressing for the bobbed hair that won't marcel because of a cowlick; from purifying a city's water supply to determining the value of a new solitaire.

To him come the baffled corner with a tale of a patient who has succumbed to some new and startling form of moonshine; the prospector with his "fool's gold"; and the patient medicine devotee with her pills.

The doctor is the terror of the country fair candy vendor, whose delectables are dyed pink from yam and the lemonade stand which invests in tataric acid rather than lemons.

Once a tractor company subpoenaed the chemistry professor to describe how the brackish slough water a farmer used was responsible for cutting down the power on a tractor for which the farmer refused to pay. Dr. Abbott found the water contained alkali. The tractor company won the case.

Not only from every part of North Dakota do they come to Dr. Abbott, but from Minnesota and Wisconsin and elsewhere. Through experiments in his laboratory the town of Sparta, Wis., was enabled to have a pure water supply.

USE BLOODHOUNDS
TO TRACK KILLER

CROWBOROUGH, Eng., April 29.—Once again the old-fashioned British detective from Scotland Yard has stepped into Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's imaginary feats of "Sherlock Holmes," and brought a suspect to the bar of justice with bloodhounds and other appurtenances so scored by that great sleuth of fiction.

Crowborough's second gruesome murder mystery of the present year advanced a step when a trembling gardener's boy was formally charged with murder of the daughter of one of the men servants in the ancestral castle of Lord Henry Neville.

The girl's body, mutilated, had been found beneath some shrubbery in Eridge Park, the castle grounds.

This ordinarily peaceful little town was only just recovering from the Elsie Cameron murder, for which Norman Thorne, a Crowborough farmer, was hanged last week. The new and even more sensational murder of little Joan Annett brought the foremost inspectors from Scotland Yard. They worked for three days on meager clues, using bloodhounds.

U. S. Airship to Carry Business
Men on Flights

WASHINGTON, April 29.—In an effort to popularize the commercial use of airships, the navy department has planned a series of short flights to be undertaken this summer by the dirigible Los Angeles with business men as passengers. Fifteen or 20 passengers will be taken on each of the "business men's flights," according to plans, and two or more trips will be made each day.

Will Keep Haynes
As Chief of Drys

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Federal Prohibition Commissioner Haynes will be continued in office, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Andrews, new czar of prohibition enforcement, indicates.

Andrews, now rounding out his first month in office, has virtually completed his survey of the prohibition unit, which Haynes heads, and will report to Secretary Mellon soon as to his recommendations for various administrative changes. He told the United Press that Haynes will not be affected.

Andrews coupled this announcement with an equally significant one that "hard-boiled" methods of prohibition agents are taboo. Agents who "shoot first and ask questions afterward" will be bent to a more conservative policy or put off the force.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—Suit for $10,000 damages is on file here today as a result of a waterfront battle in Sausalito in which Jelmor Johnson claims Mayor Herbert Madden of Sausalito was an enthusiastic participant. Johnson seeks recovery of damages from the mayor and William H. Bowen and Hubbard Brokaw, wealthy San Francisco men, for the beating he alleges they gave him.

Urge Lady Astor
To Quit; Fear She Will Break Down

NEW YORK, April 29.—Demands are being made by members of her family that Lady Astor, woman member of the British parliament, retire from politics. Fear that she will break down physically is the basis.

Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, wife of the artist and sister of Lady Astor, told of the pressure being brought upon Lady Astor, when she returned from a visit to England.

"Lady Astor needs a rest and we have been begging her to take it," Mrs. Gibson said. "But she doesn't want to quit politics until there are more women to carry on. She is ready to get out, but the other women who get into politics do not stay long enough to permit her to retire."

EXPEDITION FINDS
WIRE-CUTTING FISH

NEW YORK, April 29.—A wire-cutting fish is among the discoveries made by the Hamilton-Rice expedition in the jungles of the Amazon, according to Capt. A. W. Stevens, of the army aviation service, who has just returned from South America.

Though this fish is only a foot long, the strength of its jaws and the sharpness of its teeth enable it to sever small copper cable with ease.

The name of this wire cutter is the Piranha.

"Perhaps the outstanding feature of the expedition," Stevens said, "has been the success of wireless transmission from the jungle. Though working with portable apparatus and in the heart of the world's greatest forest, a record was made in the exchange of wireless messages with England."

"Long wave communication was carried on between the expedition and Manaus, and short wave communication with many parts of the world, including New York, San Francisco, London, Rio de Janeiro and New Zealand."

RESCUE WOMAN, 68,
WHO FELL IN WELL

PORTLAND, Ore., April 29.—Mrs. Mary Sadlox, 68, today went about her affairs at the Mount St. Joseph home for the aged just as if she had never fallen into any well.

Mrs. Sadlox fell down a 60-foot well, which she had washed. She intended to hang it on the old abandoned pump when the rotten timbers of the well covering gave way.

Her plight was seen by an attendant, who summoned a fire truck. Battalion Chief Johnson went down on the end of a rope and his firemen hauled the woman out safely. Then they pulled out Johnson, who, in the meantime, had found Mrs. Sadlox's glasses and handkerchief.

Mrs. Sadlox was bruised, but otherwise apparently was none the worse for her experience.

"Sure, and 'tis luck and a nice fireman that saved me," she said.

SEIZE SCHOONER
WITH RUM CARGO

NEW YORK, April 29.—A prize crew from the coast guard cutter No. 16, yesterday brought into port the French schooner Mousmees, with a cargo of 3000 cases of liquor valued at approximately $150,000. Ten members of her crew were under arrest.

The coast guard crew sighted the Mousmees off Ashbury Park last night and immediately boarded her.

The vessel was formerly the British schooner Diamantina and under that name was seized here last October and later released.

A small power boat, found cruising near the rum fleet, also was brought in by the cutter.

The seizures were the first made under the Washington order establishing a virtual blockade off the New York and New Jersey coasts.

Contrasts Vote
In Germany With
That of America

WASHINGTON, April 29.—"It is not a cause of gratulation in this republic that 111,000,000 people here cast fewer votes for president last fall than the 65,000,000 did in Germany last Sunday," Simon Mitchell, president of the National Get-Out-the-Vote club, said here.

The United States cast about 29,000,000 votes last fall; Germany cast 21,000,000 in electing Von Hindenburg president, he said.

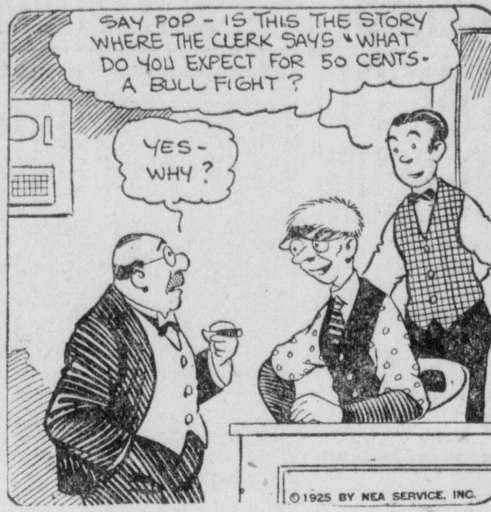

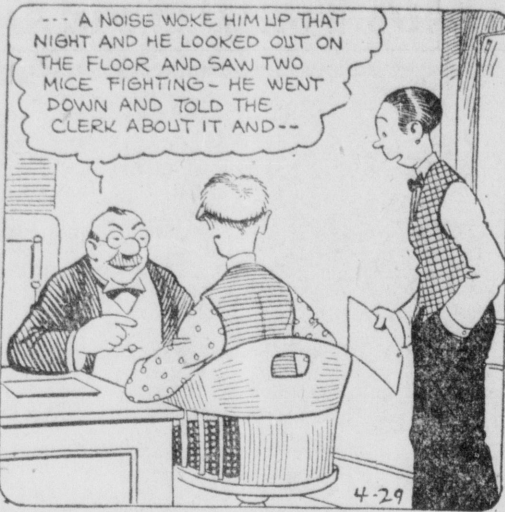

The stay-at-home vote elected Hindenburg, he said, pointing out that the second German election brought 3,000,000 more voters than did the first one, which failed to give any candidate a majority.

U. S. Steel Awards
Extra Dividends

NEW YORK, April 29.—The United States Steel corporation has declared the regular quarterly 50-cent extra dividend on common stock. Earnings for the first quarter of 1925 were $39,882,995, with a surplus for dividends amounting to $21,205,291, against the previous quarter's $14,262,705 and $31,918,836 in the first quarter of 1924. The earnings for the past quarter amounted to $2.93 a share on the common stock, compared with $1.56 in the previous quarter and $5.03 in the first quarter of 1924.
